

Tax Investigation Service

What is an HMRC Tax Investigation?

If you pay tax, HMRC has the right to check your affairs at any point to make sure you're paying the right amount of tax. Even if you've been honest and accurate declaring tax, your tax affairs could be the subject of a HMRC enquiry.

Tax investigations are not necessarily prompted by suspect accounting, missing records or late submissions, you could be selected at random.

We'll be right by your side every step of the way

With our Tax Investigation Service, you'll be protected from the costs of accountancy fees associated with a tax investigation, so you can relax in the knowledge that there will be no additional accountancy fees to pay.

We will manage your case from start to finish, including translating the many complicated questions and correspondence from HMRC and helping you submit any required information, minimising the impact on your business or personal affairs.

By investing a small amount in this service, you will have our professional representation from the outset and you can be confident that we have the expertise and experience to deal with HMRC on your behalf, bringing matters to a prompt conclusion.

Our service aims to minimise stress and disruption, save you money, and give you complete peace of mind.
